

Logan K. Philipps, Esq.

Logan assists individuals and families to plan for their lives and legacies through comprehensive estate planning. An area of concentration for Logan is work concerning children with special needs including guardianship, alternatives to guardianship and special needs trusts that allow for continued eligibility for government benefits while providing funds for quality of life enhancements.

Logan earned his B.A. from Purdue University and taught elementary school in Mariemont, Ohio before attending law school at The Ohio State University Moritz College of Law in 2006. He earned a M.A. in public policy from The Ohio State University John Glenn College of Public Affairs in 2007. Logan is a member of the Columbus, Delaware and Ohio State bar associations. He is a trustee for NAIFA-Columbus (National Association of Insurance and Financial Advisors) and has been selected as a Rising Star in the legal profession by Super Lawyers magazine since 2012.